YEARBOOK MESSAGE

Each year the request to provide a message is a signal to me that the end of the year is coming. That is sad because many fine people whom we have come to know and like will be moving on to a new school and new challenges. The happy side is that we will get to meet and know many more fine people.

These mixed feelings are compounded for me, because the end of my time at this school is coming in June, and I will be leaving behind many fine memories of a beautiful place to work, beautiful people to work with, and a host of beautiful experiences. Any unfortunate and unhappy experiences will be easy to forget.

Like the graduates of this school, however, I look forward to the changes and challenges ahead, and I'm thankful for the cooperation, support, encouragement and assistance afforded me by the parents, students, residents, support staff and colleagues in this school. Thanks so much for seven great years in my life.

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As your Student Council President, I would like to thank and congratulate all the students, teachers, secretaries and administrators for what I would say was a most successful year. Everyone had good school spirit. A special thanks to the Council Executive for its time and effort which really made the year go well.

I'm sure the student body will always remember how we worked together to raise over thirty thousand dollars to buy the Highlands School Bus. The Muk-Luk was a real success, to the class of 7A congratulations! The Christmas dance was a memorable event, being the first evening dance ever planned. Many other successful activities also come to mind.

I have enjoyed working with the student body and I hope you can continue to keep up the school spirit in future years. How knows, maybe next year you will get the new Lear Jet?

The very best of luck and success to you.

The Actor

Waiting and waiting for the crowd to rise

The young actor reads

His script and so dare

fully before him

His palms sweating

He makes his entrance.

The crowd is an ocean

of blank faces.

He feels his stomach

tightening as he says

his first line.

The heckler in the front row mocks him.

He ignores the old

fool dressed in rage.

His leading lady appears. She has a look in her eyes that comforts him.

As the play goes on,

he feels self-assured.

He bows gracefully

and exits, knowing

he has done his best

and that is all that matters.

THE FIRST KISS

The most memorable part of the first date is the first kiss. For most people, the first kiss is probably the most nerve-wracking experience. The catch is what most anticipate to happen cannot be practiced. Many try to practice, though by using one's frustly pillow as the opposite sex, or observing one's different lip movements and different positions to put the head. For some, the late nights are spent worrying about glasses, and what to do with them. With teenagers the thought of braces makes them shake. Thoughts such as "What if our braces get stuck?" or "Does he even have braces?" Problems may come and go but the worries are never over until the final moment after the first kiss.

Life is a mind game,
There is no winner,
There is no loser,
It's all the same.

Life is a competition.
Some drop out,
Some go on,
It's all the same.

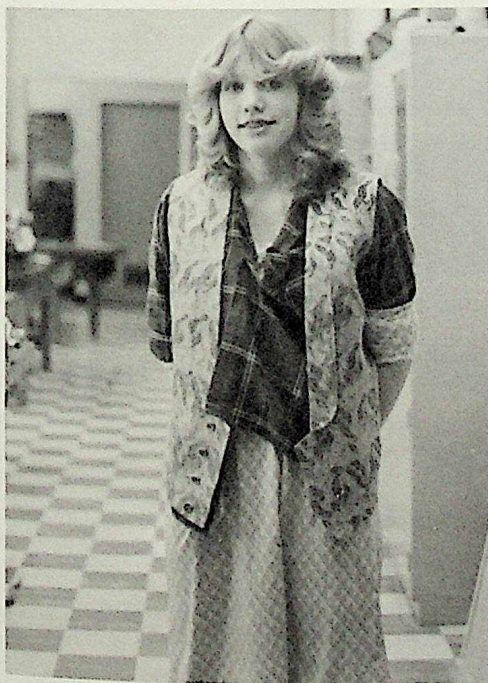

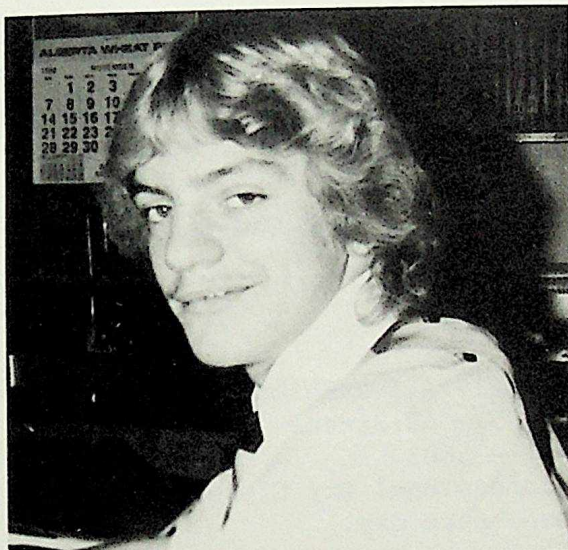

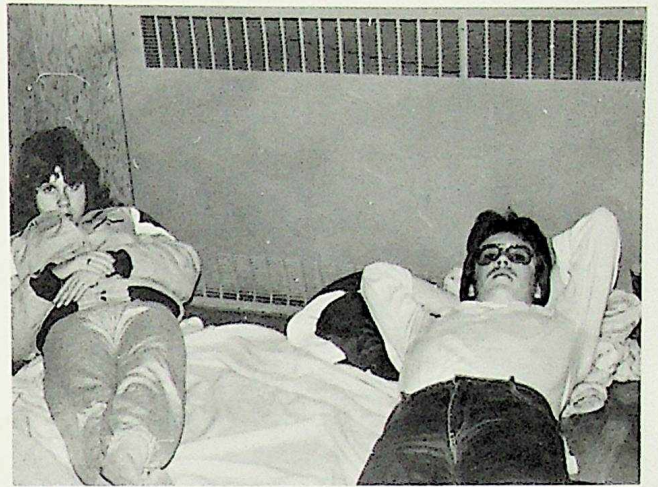

Life is ...
All the same.
